

Harborstone Credit Union is celebrating 60 years of serving members!

We set out to talk to some of our loyal members and longest-tenured employees to recognize them and learn about their experiences with Harborstone over the years. One common thread that connects members and employees is the feeling of trust and passion for an exceptional banking experience.

The Trujillos' Story

Valued members Shellie and Dan Trujillo have been members since 1984. Shellie's relationship with Harborstone first began with the savings account her dad opened for her when the credit union was still operating as McChord Credit Union. Years later, Shellie introduced her husband, Dan, to the credit union.

Shellie and Dan talked about developing their relationship with the credit union and their thankfulness for being able to trust Harborstone enough to "pass on a business relationship to [their] children to value, understand, and support them on their endeavors." As a young couple, Harborstone helped them overcome many financial challenges. Shellie says,

“This [credit union] helped us with our very first credit card, our only checking accounts, our personal loans, and our first car.”

Harborstone has been there for Shellie, Dan, and their family through everything from being able to have a safe and sound checking account to obtaining loans to help them with bigger needs. Most recently, the credit union saved the family money on their home and auto insurance just by being members!

The couple agrees, “Harborstone would always go the extra mile to make sure that we were aware of programs that we weren't taking advantage of.”

Shellie and Dan both concur that their favorite products are Online Banking and mobile features that allow them to keep an eye on their accounts, as well as bank on the go, at their convenience.

From their first accounts and loans to automatic preapprovals, Dan says, “Since the relationship has grown and strengthened, we now get preapprovals that make buying a car or pulling out a loan even easier. Preapprovals are a good reminder that it's been a good relationship!”
